FIFTEEN CENTS

Village to buy church property

by GLORIA DAVIS

Monday's meeting of the Antioch Village Board went smoothly and quickly. Two trustees, Ron Cunningham and William Seeman, were absent.

The first and most important action approved by the board was the move to publish in pamphlet form a ordinance authorizing the purchase of real property from the Antioch Methodist Church according to the conditions set forth in a contract dated June 7, 1980.

The property to be purchased is the Depot St. extension that runs from the present church property northwest to a northeast boundary.

The village will: pay $25,000 for said property; agrees to increase the width of the existing northwest drive to 24 feet; will grant a sewer and water easement; will furnish the water connection off of Depot St.

The village also will execute an agreement that, as part of the purchase price, the village will not special assess the church now or anytime in the future, for any costs connected with the construction or maintenance of sidewalks, curbs and gutters or sewers on the real estate the village is purchasing.

The village has also agreed that when Depot St. is extended, the village will relocate the present garage to a new foundation.

The board approved other motions made by Trustee Don Amundsen to: authorize the clerk to advertise for a public hearing on the Appropriation Ordinance and Revenue Sharing for the fiscal year of 1980-81; to be held on July 14, at 7 p.m.; authorize payments to Warren Associates of $700 from the General Fund, $1,800 for the corporate purpose bonds from the Project Fund and $3,750 for the rate study, ordinance and report from the Water and Sewer Fund.

Trustee Vern Barnstable made a motion, passed by the board, for the rental of the Fire Safety Building from 9 a.m. on June 28 till 6 p.m., June 29 for the annual Fire Department Dance. The rental fee of $25 was eliminated by a later approved motion made by Edgar Simonsen.

A later motion allowed the closing of Holbeck Drive for the Firemen's Dance.

Other motions made by Barnstable and approved by the board include: a move to grant permission to the Lake County Radio Department to erect an antenna, to be used for receiving purposes only on top of the Antioch Water Tower; to grant permission to the Chamber of Commerce to use the village parking lot on the west side of Toft Ave. and to close Toft Ave. from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m., on July 13 for the annual art fair; to accept a draft copy of the Traffic Safety Study prepared by Barton-Aschman Associates and to instruct the printing of the final report; to authorize payment of $31,898.15 to Benes Construction for the construction of the Antioch Senior Citizen Center, payment subject to approval of the building inspector; to authorize payment of $50,000 to Alliance Contractors for the Orchard St. Hillside Ave. improvement project, subject to engineers approval and receipt of material waivers of lien and a contractors affidavit; authorize clerk to advertise for blacktopping bids and sidewalk and curb replacement and catch basin cleaning bids to be opened at 8 p.m. on July 7.

The village will replace all damaged sidewalks and curbing in the village that belongs to the public and will replace those bordered by private concerns willing to go on a 50/50 basis, the village paying half, the owner the other half.

The immediate sidewalk and curb and gutter replacement will take place on Lake St. from the Vault Restaurant's driveway, west past Johnson Jewelers.

Edgar Simonsen went on record as not enjoying the making of the motion to return $1,072 to the U. S. Environmental Protection Agency due to their audit that disallowed $1,429 of the technical service costs of which 75 percent of the questioned amount is the village's share. This was part of the construction grant for the sanitary plant from 1973 to 1976.

Motions were passed to issue one day liquor licenses to Buffet Dinner Dance Committee, to the chamber for the Art Fair, Pickard China and Lyons and Ryan for their picnics.

Other business transacted by the board included the acceptance of the recom-

'Greatest Dad' sets example

The fact that Julie Apostol thinks her dad is the greatest because he sets a good example and works hard to buy the ten other people in their family the things they need, was good enough to make her dad the Antioch Chamber of Commerce's "Dad of the Year."

How does her dad set a good example? Julie explains by saying, "For instance, he tells us we should be good Christians and go to church and he goes himself."

As she proudly stood with her arm around her father, Julie continued, "When he says something he follows through and if he tells you he'll be somewhere, he is."

According to this St. Peter's eighth grader, a large family works when there is love, caring and everyone is willing to help.

Apostol gives most of the credit to his wife Ricky. "I just go to work and pay the bills," he says.

"She does most of the handling of the kids." He went on.

Then he quotes Confucius, "A man should never plant a garden bigger than his wife can tend."

The Apostol family are long term Antioch residents, living in the village for 23 years.

For 21 of those, Apostol has worked at Ammeo Tools, North Chicago, where he is now a quality control manager.

The Father of the Year thinks that this whole thing is terrific and beams with pride at his lovely dark haired offspring.

"But then I'm proud of all my kids," he said. "Their mother did a great job with them," he added.

Julie had fallen off her bike just a few minutes before the call came telling her that she had won the contest.

"That's the best case of instant medicine I've ever seen," her mother said.

Julie loves to draw and is taking an oil painting course from Wava Barns.

What are some of the number one dad's child rearing secrets? "I don't believe in allowances," he says.

"They earn any spending money by doing odd jobs for people and once in a while we'll pay them for doing household chores when they're saving for something special," he reported.

One of the real tests of togetherness comes everyday since this family, that does so much together, lives in a two story ranch house that has only a bath and a half.

The feminine half claim that the male members of the family jam up the bathrooms more than they do.

The Apostol family has gone through four washing machines and countless toasters, according to the group's mother, Ricky.

Ricky also says that the kids must approve of their family life, as spear-headed by their dad, because they are always bring home other kids to live.

Barr, Maginot complete eye training course

Bill Barr and Paul Maginot, partners of the Barr Funeral Home, 532 Lake St., Antioch; recently completed an eye enucleation training course offered by the University of Illinois Medical Center Campus in Chicago.

The intensive, one day course is offered in cooperation with the Lions of Illinois Foundation, Oak Park, the charitable arm of the Lions Clubs in Illinois.

Purpose of the course is to provide trained technicians throughout the state who know how to enucleate, or remove, eyes from deceased persons who have signed eye donor pledges during their lifetimes. Enucleated eyes are transported to eye banks and used for corneal transplants and medical research.

Barr and Maginot are members of the Antioch Lions Club, and have been appointed co-chairmen of the eye donor registry by Antioch Lion President Paul Eckert.

The course Barr and Maginot took included everything from lectures on legal aspects of enucleations, to physiology lectures, to laboratory work.

Providing trained technicians is one aspect of the Lions of Illinois Foundation's Eye Donor Registry Program.

The foundation is not an eye bank. Lions sign up donors, establish collection centers, and transport tissue to an eye bank. Policies of the eye bank itself determine the use of the tissue from there.

The eye donor program is one of several humanitarian services administered or supported by the foundation. Most of the financing comes from proceeds from Lions Club Candy Day, held the second Friday of every October.

The Lions eye donor registry is part of a statewide cooperative effort by several organizations to improve the eye tissue supply. Among cooperating organizations are the Foundation, Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness; Illinois Eye Bank; Chicago Ophthalmological Society; Watson Gailey-Mennonite Hospital Eye Bank; and St. Louis Eye Bank.

Persons wishing further information regarding the donation of their eyes or wishing to sign up for donating their eyes, should contact either Bill Barr or

Paul Maginot at the Barr Funeral Home, which has been designated the Antioch Area Eye Donor Center. The funeral home address is 522 Lake St. or call 395-2303.

Lots of kids like dad

Although many of the kids in Antioch seem to think that the greatest thing their dad can do is take them places and buy them things, there were some of the children that entered the Antioch Chamber of Commerce's

Greatest Dad Contest, with unique and cute reasons for preferring their dad above all others.

Second choice went to Mathew Johnson, 8, who said, 'My dad is the greatest because he sleeps with me all night in my tent with a radio.'

The third runner up was Debbie Christensen, 9, who thought that her dad deserved the prize for being the best because, 'He's gone a lot, he works nights so we don't see him a lot, but he tries to be with us and he protects us from dangerous things and places.'

Other entrants nominated their dads for taking them canoeing, swimming, motorcycle riding and for playing hockey, football and baseball with them.

A few thought that it was super that dad loved, cared, and supported them, while one liked his father for smiling, another for talking to him a lot and another for worrying about them.

Two of the favorites thought a lot of dad 'because he fools around a lot,' and one little girl thought he was great because he always gave her cotton candy.

No matter what the reason, this contest proved that there is no shortage of kids that think their dad is king.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

My goodness, I see that all the usual Antioch summer excitement is starting. That is if one can see anything with all the dust storms being kicked up by the Main St. and Lake St. repairs.

But I guess we can stand these little irritations since it's all going to be so nice when it's finished.

Has anyone seen ElRoy Anderson this week. Last reports had him still looking for the five golf balls he lost in the rough while playing in the Lions' golf tournament. I also hear that the Mayor's face is still red after being beaten on one hole by first timer Mike Angelotti who pared that particular hole.

Everybody must have had a good time at this event as evidenced by the sound of the Lions' roar during the 19th hole libation.

By the way, a belated happy birthday to Louise Johnson, wife of school board member, Frank Johnson.

Audrey, from Guys and Dolls, gave me a refreshing treat the other day while she was doing my hair. I must say it's the first time I got silvers from a bite of watermelon.

All of you that have been wanting to learn to play bridge, here's your chance!

Glenda Tomaschik of the Park District tells me that there are still some openings in the class for bridge beginners scheduled for Wednesdays from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., from June 18 through August 16.

That locally famous bridge player, Louise Muir is the teacher, so hurry and register. I know she'll make you an expert by summer's end. You must be at least 18 years old.

Glenda also says not to forget the baton twirling classes for kids, five years and older. They will be held on Fridays, from 1 to 3 p.m., June 20 to August 8.

Oh goodie, I see there's another rummage sale this Saturday at St. Peters from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. These sales are such fun. They're sort of like a treasure hunt. I got some lovely buys at the Methodist Church last week.

Last Saturday was Flag Day and I was really disappointed when I counted all the houses that had no flag on display.

I think that all of us should be proud to fly the banner that says I am an American. Why not inquire at the office of the Antioch News about an easy and inexpensive way to get a beautiful new flag in time for a patriotic Fourth of July display.

Betty Smouse tells me that PM and L is doing Gigi this summer. I wonder if I could polish up my French accent, get a straw hat and cane, and try out for Maurice Chevel'ere's part. I do love that song, "Thank Heaven For Little Girls."

Whoops! Who's the cute blond that almost lost the top of her bikini when she dove in the pool last week?

Our friend Russ Fairchild, who was reported having a broken hip, actually had two broken hips and a broken pelvis. Glad to see him navigating through town with his canes.

Was that six foot tall Hank Apostol I saw strolling through town with daughter Julie on a very special Father's Day?

For my fish story of the week, I'd like to report that Ward Lear caught the fifth biggest rainbow trout in the Pepsi Cola Coho Derby being held on Lake Michigan. The derby continues through June 29.

Oops! Just got a late flash that Elroy Andersen really lost a dozen balls at the lions' tournament and most of them belonged to Jim Kopriva.

PARDON

There was a mistake in the story in last week's News concerning the meeting held at the village hall last Monday.

This was a committee meeting of the Antioch Village Board not a meeting of the Antioch Planning Commission.

In the report concerning the L. Petersen property, there is also a correction, since they will not be required to build on that property within a year of approval.

Baby Bottle Tooth Decay

From a dental point of view, nursing babies from bottles can cause problems. Dentally-speaking — what's the worst thing you can do to a baby? Stick him in his crib with a bottle at nap time and let him fall asleep with the bottle in his mouth. Milk or juice in the mouth and on the teeth turns to acid and causes teeth to break down rapidly. Many babies who sleep with a baby bottle develop severe tooth decay, often in their front teeth. The problem is not the bottle but what's in it. The sugar in the milk, formula, or fruit juices causes the decay. Sometimes, these teeth become so decayed they cause severe pain and may break off or have to be pulled. During sleep, the liquid pools behind the baby's teeth and keeps them bathed in sugar for hours.

One solution is to give baby the last feeding before bedtime. If your baby is still using a bottle when his teeth begin to appear, let him use it for short periods of time awake or sitting up. If he is using a bottle as a pacifier, put water in the bottle. Use a small, soft toothbrush and brush the infant's teeth and gums without toothpaste. This will effectively remove the plaque that acts on the sugars.

Woman behind the Antioch man

Janet Brook: I love the Bears

by GLORIA DAVIS

Very few people in Antioch need an introduction to this week's Woman behind the Antioch Man since Janet Brook, wife of the President of the Antioch State Bank, Bill Brook, is involved in most things that pertain to the betterment of her village.

JANET WAS BORN in Oak Park, graduated from Oak Park High School and attended Beloit College.

After college she worked at Marshall Field's, downtown in Chicago, as a personal shopping guide.

Janet was casually introduced to Bill by one of his fraternity brothers when they were both attending Beloit College, but it wasn't until she came up to her folks' summer cottage on Channel Lake, that they really got to know one another.

They were married in 1941 and she spent the first couple of years of her married life as a soldier's wife, since Bill was stationed in Tyler, Texas, in the U.S. Infantry.

The Brooks had two daughters, Ainsley, 27, and Suraya whom they lost when she was stricken with cancer as a young woman.

What's it like to be married to a successful bank president, who is also one of his community's most active gentlemen?

Janet Brook says, "It's great!" even though she is left to her own devices a lot because of husband's myriad of activities.

A woman's place

She is presently very active in the Antioch Women's Club and the Lake County Cancer Society, in fact she was leaving right after her picture was taken, to transport a cancer patient to the hospital for treatment.

Here's an anachronism for you, Janet is an avid Chicago Bear fan and watches all the games, while her husband could care less about football.

As most people know, Brook is a hunter and a fisherman, so when he's off to the woods, Janet and Sophie Thain cheer their favorite team on.

She also likes most of the other competitive sports, often enjoying the local high school's basketball games.

Gardening is another of her loves, the raising of beautiful flowers her forte.

When I think about it Is air conditioning a modern torture tool?

Speaking as one who was never really warm all winter, I'm really more than ecstatic that summer is finally upon us, if you can call these chilly mornings, afternoons and evenings, summer.

Thank goodness we will now, for the most part, be enjoying balmy, even hot weather!

But just as my old bones are almost defrosted, I am reminded of the redundancy of our modern technology, which in its effort to pamper us, tends to overdo a good thing.

I'm talking about that modern convenience, air conditioning.

I sometimes feel that these cooling devices are simply torture tools disguised as divine soothants.

I think, now that summertime is upon us, there lurks in every restaurant, under every grocery counter, hiding in each movie theater, and beneath every car's dash, a frosty fiend.

With a simple over twist of the dial, this felon succeeds in making one feel like they are back in the frosty wintertime without a coat on.

How can a restaurant's temperature, that felt so good when you first took refuge from the heat, raise goose flesh that turns to numbness within a few minutes?

Sipping ice tea and munching a crisp salad while you're shivering is not my idea of the good life.

What happened to President Carter's edict on energy saving temperature control?

I get the feeling that I have joined Admiral Bird's expedition each time I approach the freezer section of the supermarket and the lethargy that attacks those who are freezing to death, soon causes the labels to blur.

Then we have the problem of the air conditioned car where the only comfortable spot is in the back seat. I think the local gendarms would frown on someone literally becoming a back seat driver.

And the movie theaters are unbelievable! I'm going to be comfortable as I drool over Robert Redford and Paul Newman and I don't care who laughs at me when I tote my quilted snuggle sack into the show.

As I sit here, turning blue in our air conditioned office, even though the temperature outside is over 70 degrees, I'd like to get my frostbitten hands on whoever first said, "Be cool man."

It's in the shopping bag

Even though inflation and all those horribly high prices are playing havoc with everyone's budget, careful and time consuming shopping can still put those things that you need, and many of the items that you want, within reach.

If one keeps a sharp lookout, the stores in Antioch always feature specials and by taking advantage of them, that paycheck might just stretch a little further.

With savings in mind, let's start out at the Thrift Shop sponsored by Antioch's Mental Health League.

The bargains to be found there are great and remember someone's castoff is someone else's yen.

Just this week we found such varied treasures as golf skirts, in many sizes and colors, all priced from $1 to $1.50.

On display in the window is a portable sewing machine, in good working order for a mere $25, and I found a darling ceramic coffee server with matching cups in a birdcage container for $10.

For those of you who just can't see or afford to spend, the usual $200 on a wedding gown that will only be worn for a few hours, they have a beautiful one for just $30. Just think, that'll take care of the something 'old' superstition too.

With a shrinking budget still in mind, why not head for This N That and take advantage of their 20 per cent off sale. Just think they're now open on Sundays, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m..

Don't forget that Stitch Witchery is having a sale too, their going out of business special. They've marked everything in the store down by 30 per cent.

Sales are also going on at the Shoe Box, the Globe and Carousel.

Remember, a penny saved will pay part of the tax on the next purchase. Fox Lake Thelen found the competition a little rougher against Orchard Dental, but came up with five runs in the final inning to win 12-9. Sue Nauman had a grand slam homerun to win the game.

Dawn Bissing and Cheri Terry turned a double play in the game. Nauman was also the winning pitcher.

Meanwhile, Heath uncorked a seven-run first and six-run fifth inning to defeat Thelen and Melody Retmayer 15-6. Dawn Bissing had a homerun in the losing cause and Joy Whitehead and Sue Nauman had triples.

According to winning manager Dick Witt, the Advertiser won its opening game behind a 12 strikeout performance by Duha. Down by two runs in the last inning, a Orchard earlier in the week had battered Pickard China 14-5 as Geri Gutowski notched the victory on the mound. A double play from Gutowski to second baseman Cindy Cavanaugh and first baseman Linda Sexton was one of the highlights.

Gutowski led hitters with a triple and Linda Sexton had a double for the winners. Cavanaugh, Debbie Driessler, Cindy Morris, Lori Peiks, Becky Buterschoen and Marcy Perrott had singles.

Pickard bounced back to defeat Flo's Beauty Shop on June 12 by a 28-17 score. Renee Eves was hot at the plate with a homerun and a triple for the winners. Her homerun came with two men on base in the sixth inning.

Ed Kurek, retiring director of curriculum and guidance at Antioch High School, reports that he has purchased the property at 735 Main St. with his retirement pay from AHS.

He intends to remodel the building on that property, into approximately three beautifully landscaped air conditioned office units for

INSURANCE INFORMATION

Newly married, we have just leased an unfurnished house and have settled in with our wedding presents and new furniture. Should we have any insurance since the building does not belong to us?

Yes. Rather than depend on a landlord's insurance, it is preferable for you to insure your possessions, yourself. The Contents Broad Form, Tenants Form or Form HO-4 policy will insure your household contents and personal belongings against virtually all of the perils included in the typical Homeowner's policy. The structure itself will not be included in the coverage. ## Township talks on road access

by Gloria Davis

This month's meeting of Antioch Township Board was held last Thursday.

First on the agenda was the approval of the appointment of Frank Moser to the first fire district.

Township resident, Mary Franzen, brought before the board some problems existing in the Klondike Corners subdivision. She cited the problem of one resident, Dave Jones, who had built a three-car garage adjacent to his property on Sherwyn Ave. understanding that he would have right of way to Grass Lake Road, through Tom Streishal, owner of the Grass Lake Marina.

After the building was erected he found himself without road access and in the middle of a mixup that involves Streishal, Blaine Ring, township road commissioner and Robert Streicher of the County Board of Zoning.

Not being able to locate the property's owner, Streicher advised Jones to have Ring vacate the property.

Board chairman Jim Fields told Franzen that only the County Board can vacate a subdivision street. The board consensus was also that the property was probably not actually owned by anybody, much like over 500 other township roads.

"Jones, who is now left with a garage he can't use, was also refused permission to build an apartment for his mother atop said garage because his property was in the flood plain," said Franzen.

Since no one came up with a solution to Jones' access problem, assessor Bud Holtz suggested that Jones make his own access to Grass Lake Road and use it until told he could not.

Franzen also had a complaint about the useless continual dredging of the chain by the federal government, at great expense, since natural refill-ins resulted within a short amount of time.

The question of the payment of taxes by the owners of trailers parked on land already assessed in property blocks was also mentioned.

Fields said that the properties under discussion were zoned commercially so the parking of the trailers was legal.

Holtz said that taxes on the property were paid by the owner and he could not tax the trailers individually because they came under personal property.

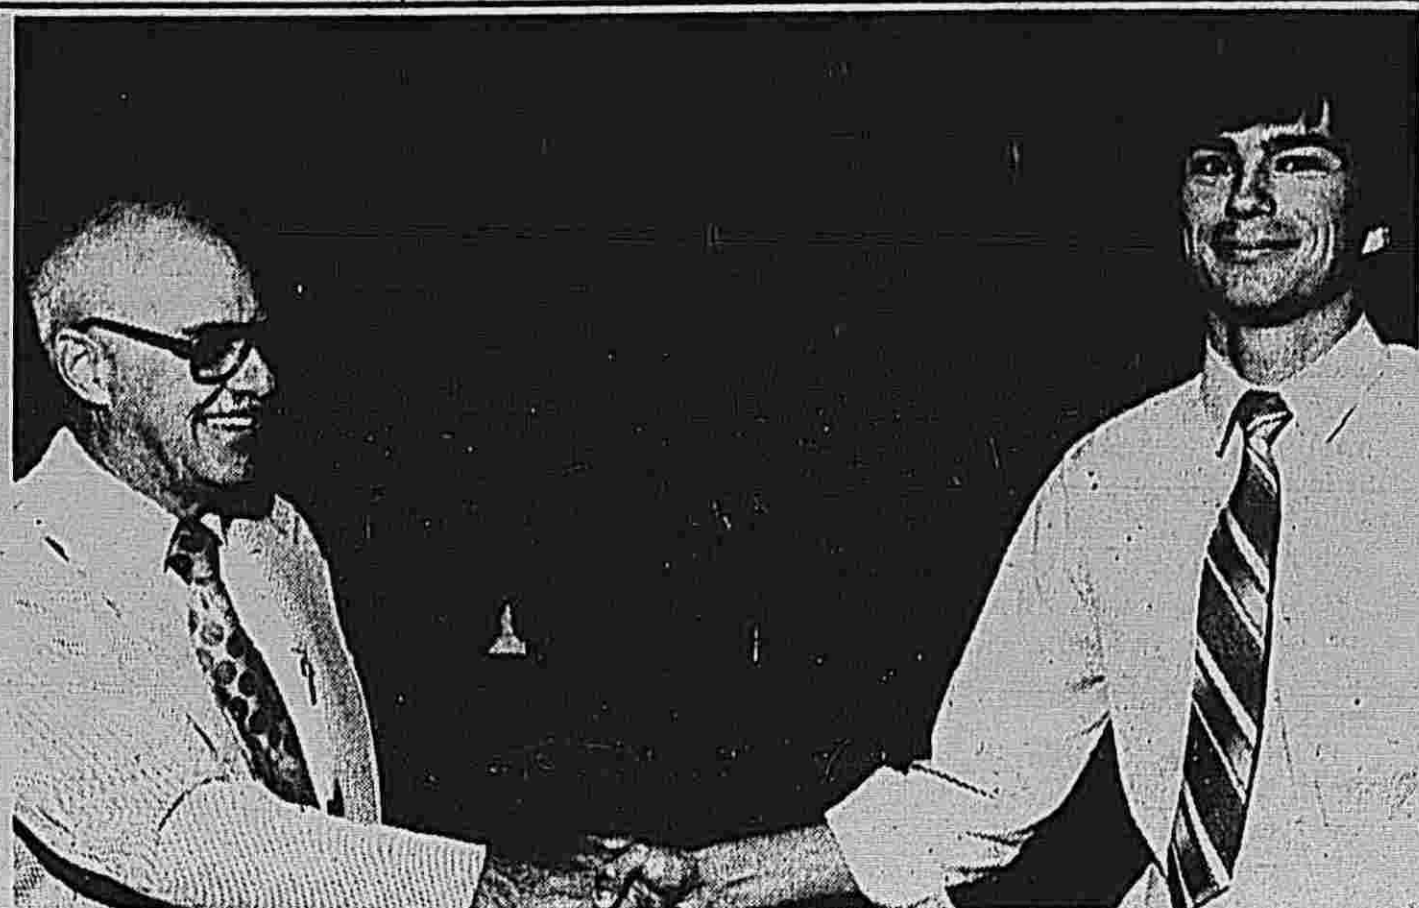

A trailer park owned by Mayor Michael Haley's brother along with those parked on Grass Lake Marina's land, were a couple of the examples brought forth.

While on the subject of property taxes, Franzen questioned the raise from the original $21,000 price of her home to the present assessed value of $90,000.

Franzen said, "Because my garage and home are on two separate lots, I now find that my garage has a higher value than my house."

Assessor Holtz said that this was one of the reasons he planned to lower property assessments from 25 percent to 21 percent so that, with the multiplier, the taxes will probably remain at a standstill instead of the raise expected.

Holtz complained that he had people whose property was assessed at $30,000 more than

WINS SCHOLARSHIP AWARD — Graduate Kirk Moran, Antioch, right, receives the Mosby Scholarship Book award from Dr. Thomas Nelson, chairperson of the department of biomedical sciences at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville School of Dental Medicine at the spring awards luncheon in Alton. the actual value. He blamed the high prices on the sale of over-priced housing.

Next the board was asked what additional benefits were to be received from the tax raises. A request for the spraying of mosquitoes was made.

Fields said that the property owners would be required to pay an additional price for this service which in the openness of the township would probably prove fruitless.

Holtz also gave an explanation of tax relief for those in low income brackets, previously set at $1500, now set at $3,000. Senior citizens are allowed another $1500 plus previous $3,000, totaling a $4,500 break.

People were asked to check their tax bills on the bottom to make sure they had received proper benefits.

If you're looking at new houses and you haven't seen this, you're wasting your energy.

Introducing the Energy Smart House.

A home designed to conserve energy from the foundation up.

The Energy Smart House is a total approach to energy conservation developed by Commonwealth Edison and other members of the National Energy Watch.

Saving energy isn't an afterthought, it's the most important consideration. Today, Energy Smart builders design their homes to conform to strict energy conservation standards.

The payoff for the home buyer is a real payoff. The Energy Smart House costs less to operate. As energy costs go up, it will be worth more on resale than a home without its energy-saving features. And buying a home with these advantages built in will cost less than upgrading a home later on.

Built to keep heat inside in winter, outside in summer.

The Energy Smart House is a comfortable world of its own that protects you from hot summers and cold winters.

The ceiling is insulated to a minimum rating of R-19; the walls to R-11. The windows are double glazed, creating a protective barrier of air. All exterior openings are weather-stripped and caulked. Nothing goes in that shouldn't. Nothing comes out that shouldn't.

Heating and cooling by an electric heat pump produces more energy than it uses.

Most conventional furnaces make heat by burning scarce fuels. The Energy Smart House uses the electric heat pump to capture heat from the sun—heat that's already present in the outside air even on cloudy, cold winter days. Over the entire heating season, it produces at least 50% more energy than it uses.

In summer, the heat pump is an air conditioner that pumps heat out to keep you cool.

To enjoy a houseful of energy-saving features, insist on an Energy Smart House. Welcome home.

She likes to drive big ones

Pat Corey, 21, Crystal Lake, has an occupation that has ERA jumping for joy. She has been driving heavy equipment for three years.

Last week, Pat was behind the wheel of one of Peter Baker and Sons, asphalt rollers, working the revamping of Antioch's Main St.

When asked why she chose the driving of the big machines, Pat answered, "I guess I grew up around them. Both my dad and my brothers are operators."

What does she do when she's not wearing coveralls and pulling levers;

"I play drums with a band and love to date," Pat said.

She continued, "I really like feminine clothes and wear a lot of dresses."

Pat intends to stick with the big wheels for awhile and eventually go into engineering.

In order to qualify for distinguished rating, a student must have a grade index of at least 5.5, B plus, of a possible 6, A, in no less than 14 academic credit hours. The students may have no grade below C.

Patrick Houghton of Antioch was among the honored students. He is studying chemical engineering.
